

Sri Lanka comments for Article 5: Plastic product design

Sri Lanka supports to improve plastic product design in pursuit of circular economy approaches aligning with the sustainable production and consumption principle, supported by international financing and technology transfer for alternatives.

Sri Lanka further proposes the establishment of a compatible and easily removable labeling mechanism to facilitate recycling, and supports the use of safe and sustainable additives in plastic products.