

Article 1-

Objective

Iran would like to make a textual suggestion regarding the Article 1. Objective as following:

The objective of this instrument is to achieving healthy environment from the adverse effects of plastic pollution in particular the legacy plastics, including in the marine environment taking into account national circumstances, capabilities and priorities through the efficient transfer of technology, reliable and predictable financing and capacity building from developed nations to provide to developing nations.