

Sri Lanka comments for Article 1bis: Principles and approaches

Developing countries have a right to grow sustainable consumption to meet social and economic development needs. Sri Lanka supports the inclusion of common but differentiated responsibilities (CBDR), the precautionary principle, and the polluter pays principle. These are critical to ensuring equity, especially for developing countries like Sri Lanka.