

Definition suggestion:

(a) “Plastic” means any material made wholly or partly of polymeric substances, whether synthetic, semi-synthetic or bio-based, and containing any additives or other substances.

(b) “Plastic pollution” means any emissions and leakages of plastic materials or particles (including microplastics and nanoplastics) and associated additives/ chemicals into the environment, resulting in adverse effects on human health or ecosystems.