Saudi Arabia’s proposal to merge Option 1 and Option 3

Merged option 1&3

The scope of the instrument is based on a comprehensive approach of plastic waste, considering the principles of the Rio Declaration on Environment and Development, as well as national circumstances and capabilities, while ensuring sufficient flexibility to accommodate the different capacities and circumstances of developing countries, and guided by the Principle of national sovereignty, while still being effective in addressing plastic pollution.