Part II – 12. Just Transitions Pathways
Saudi Arabia submission

Saudi Arabia’s preference on the streamline version of Just Transitions Pathways

Option 1

1. Each Party shall promote and facilitate, as per national circumstances and capabilities and relevant national regulation, a fair, equitable and inclusive transitions pathways in the context of sustainable development, which encompasses pathways that include socioeconomic, workforce, technology and innovation, circularity, and other dimensions, with special consideration for developing country Parties, in the implementation of this instrument*

2. Developed country Parties shall provide sufficient means of implementation (capacity-building, finance, and technology development and transfer) to facilitate just transitions pathways and of enhancing international cooperation on, and support for, just transitions pathways, especially for developing country Parties

3. Each Party shall promote and facilitate a fair, equitable and inclusive transitions pathways for affected populations with special consideration for women and vulnerable groups, including children and youth, in the implementation of this instrument* including by, inter alia, enhancing institutional arrangements, enabling policies and conditions to improve the opportunities, capabilities and livelihoods of affected communities.

4. In their actions to achieve just transitions pathways, Parties are guided by the Principles of this instrument*