Capacity Building and Information Exchange:

Türkiye strongly believes that international cooperation and information sharing is crucial for achieving the objective of the instrument. By sharing best practices regarding sustainable production and consumption, circular economy and zero waste initiatives, as well as new technologies, we can accelerate progress towards ending plastic pollution. This open exchange will allow us to effectively disseminate knowledge and learn from each other. Therefore, we fully support all paragraphs under the headings “International Cooperation” and “Information Exchange.”