Article: Principles

Description: In-session submission by Kuwait

Article	Statements
Principles	we will focus our intervention on principles as we have been reiterating the critical role of principles since the beginning of the process, with that, we support a standalone article on principles to govern the future instrument, similar to what our colleagues from Micronesia mentioned that principles are better operationalized in a separate article We support the principle submission that the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia has submitted on behalf of the Arab group, and we do not support the references of principles in a vague manner Looking at MEAs, the reality is each agreement has its own context some being detailed while others include a few what we are dealing here with is an instrument that addresses plastic pollution which is very complex and requires overarching principles as proposed in the submission.
