Thank you.

We thank Japan for para 13bis of the revised zero draft. The text should be kept in the streamlined draft and may serve as the starting point of negotiations. There are elements in para 13bis that require further understanding by the Indian delegation which may be done while having negotiations on the text.

Thank you.