Mexico’s proposal for insertions to “Preamble”

Mexico supports to maintain the text in Preamble as it is in the revised zero draft and would like to insert the following paragraphs:

Reaffirming States’ commitment to respect, protect and fulfil human rights in the context of efforts to address plastic pollution for the benefit of present and future generations.

Acknowledging that plastic pollution has disproportionate impacts on persons, groups and peoples in vulnerable situations such as children, women, Indigenous Peoples, coastal communities, neighboring communities affected by plastic production facilities, and workers at heightened risk of occupational exposure, including waste-pickers.

Recalling Resolution 76.17 of the World Health Assembly "The impact of chemicals, waste and pollution on human health" (2023).

Recalling ILO Fundamental Conventions.
