Part III.1 Financing

Point 4. To support the implementation of the obligations under this instrument by developing country Parties, particularly prioritizing parties that have the largest capacity and governance gaps, especially small island developing States, downstream developing countries and least developed countries, a mechanism will be established for the purposes of providing financial and technical assistance, including technology transfer, capacity-building and training.