Part V.1 – Governing body

Kazakhstan requests clarification on how the work of the Governing Body will be financed. Given that the main provisions of this draft treaty overlap with the requirements of other existing international treaties and the responsible persons in the countries are often the same persons, coordination with the Secretariats of the relevant international treaties (relevant to this draft treaty) should be indicated.