

PHILIPPINE PROPOSAL

Article 19: Health

Parties shall adopt measures CONSISTENT WITH this instrument, for:

- 1) Protection and promotion of the health of the public by identifying human health risks arising from the use of or exposure to plastics and formulation of health-related policies based on scientific and evidence-based research by recognized authorities or bodies and,
- 2) Promotion of human health through advocacy, public health education and awareness, and behavioral change interventions,
- 3) Development of health-based standards and services for the prevention and management of adverse health effects arising from use/ exposure to plastics, especially for vulnerable population, and
- 4) Fostering international and national collaboration among concerned entities and stakeholders on programs relating to the promotion of human health and well-being.