The Philippines believes that a presentation of principles to undergird the international legally binding instrument is important. In particular, we would like to include mention of the principles:

- Set out in the Rio Declaration
- Common but differentiated responsibilities
- Polluter Pays principle
- Precautionary Principle
- Prevention Principle
- Just transition
- Intergenerational equity
- Transparency
- Local and Indigenous knowledge