

On the principles

Egypt supports having a standalone article for principles

We are in favor of a separate article tackling the guiding and internationally agreed principles of the instrument with reference to Equity, Common but Differentiated Responsibilities and Respective Capabilities, respect of national circumstances of each country as has been emphasized several times in UNEA Resolution 5/14, while pursuing country-driven approaches to implementation of sustainable production and consumption.

Thank you very much Chair.