

In-session document by Sri Lanka on the provisions on Accidental spills in the future international instrument on plastic pollution

Drawing from Sri Lanka's experience with the X-press pearl disaster that released around 1600 MT of plastics to our ocean, we would like to propose text “on taking mitigation and remediation measures including clean-up activities related to existing and legacy plastic pollution caused by accidental spills from maritime disasters, specifically affecting developing island nations.”