

Sri Lanka supports Article 15: Reporting

Reporting obligations should be streamlined, non-burdensome, and accompanied by capacity support for developing countries. Further, reporting must be accompanied by user friendly and not to be complicated.

Sri Lanka emphasizes the importance of Harmonized methodologies and standardized datasets to ensure comparability and consistency across Parties.