

Submission of India

PRINCIPLES

The instrument is to be understood, acted upon, implemented, reported and evaluated, consistent with the following:

- The principles of the Rio Declaration on Environment and Development especially the principle 7 and 8
- National circumstances, priorities and capabilities
- Right to development
- Consistency with international agreements or instruments