

Circular economy and zero-waste systems directly contribute to the core objective of this Convention by preventing and reducing plastic pollution. Highlighting these approaches specifically within education, awareness-raising, and capacity-building activities is critical to ensuring efficient resource use and minimizing plastic waste generation.

We therefore propose adding the phrase:

“...with special emphasis on zero-waste practices and circular economy principles”

at the end of paragraph 2.