

INC-5.2 Proposal of the United States of America

Article 29

1. [keep as is]
2. The provisions of this Convention do not preclude a Party from taking actions and measures that the Party considers necessary for the protection of national security.

Note: We are flexible on where this text appears in the instrument and would propose that a new article called “General Exclusion” (Article 29bis) might be another option.*