Contact Group II
Part IV
Reporting on Progress

Comments:
The elaboration of national reports should follow a simple and flexible model, in light of national capabilities, realities, circumstances and priorities, particularly in developing countries. Such reports should include references to both the progress achieved and the challenges faced by Parties, in particular by developing countries.

Brazil chooses Option 2.