The Parties shall establish a mechanism for the purposes of providing financial and technical assistance, including the transfer of technologies, to developing country parties to enable them to comply with the agreed control measures.

The Governing Body shall establish a permanent body to govern the financial mechanism. The permanent shall undertake assessment on the technology and financial needs, including technology transfer, for each of the developing country parties to comply with each of the agreed control measures, as well as mobilization of financial resources for the same.

The Mechanism shall consist of newly established dedicated fund to enable and support compliance by developing country parties with the any agreed control measures.

The contributions from the dedicated fund to the developing country parties shall be additional and distinct from other financial transfers received by such parties.

The Governing Body of the instrument shall decide on activities to be funded in developing country parties through the dedicated fund and the modalities for providing such funds, on order to enable the developing country parties comply with agreed control measures.

The dedicated fund shall be periodically replenished, from various sources, including by parties following the principle of Common but Differentiated Responsibility.
