Iran input for EPR system under zero draft

Option 3:

1. Parties are encouraged to consider establish and operate fiscal and/or non-fiscal Extended Producer Responsibility (EPR) systems as appropriate and based on national circumstances and capability, including, where relevant, to incentivise increased recyclability, support higher recycling rates, and enhance the accountability of producers and importers for safe and environmentally sound management, of plastic products and increase public awareness.