PART II

7. Extended producer responsibility

MONACO views
The polluter pays principle and EPR is an important tool that can serve as a complementary means of financing implementation of the treaty. The treaty should set obligation to countries to launch and improve EPR schemes, recognizing that the appropriate policy strategies of countries for implementing the polluter pays principle may vary depending on their circumstances. Therefore, Monaco supports Option 1.